These Happy Golden Years – HarperCollins
I remember seeing pieces of trees that looked a little like broccoli being tossed in the air. And then it rained, and my short and sweet tornado encounter was done, not to be repeated until I started chasing storms (on purpose!) in 1999. I must have read this chapter ten times for every time I read These Happy Golden Years when I was a kid.

These Happy Golden Years, Chapter 29: Summer Storm ...
In These Happy Golden Years, sixteen-year-old Laura is on the cusp of adulthood. It is time to put away the things of childhood and accept the necessities of providing for her blind sister and preparing to live away from Ma and Pa. This means that Laura has to finally become a teacher.
