The story behind the book: Karen Foxlee's 'A Most Magical ...

Foxlee deftly wields the tropes of witchery: the importance of wands, the character and flight of broomsticks, and the selection of magical objects—for Annabel, a seeing stone. Her heroines—besides Annabel, there ' s Kitty, the dark-browed, green-eyed " wild girl " from the streets, and a young troll with aspirations—have grit and heart, and they are willing to get dirty.
