in multiple perspectives.
Differentiate the voices.

Access Free First Year Writing Perspectives On

The easiest way to fail at multiple perspective is to not actually have any. Don't give characters the same sense of humor, the same vocabulary, the same sense of right and wrong. When in doubt, read the different perspectives aloud.

5 Quick Tips for Writing in Multiple Perspectives - Writer ...

First, second and third person accounts. A story has to be 'told' to the reader and a 'narrator' is needed to do this. A narrator's voice can be first, second or third person. Here is a quick summary:
