The InView Test is a standardized cognitive abilities aptitude assessment that's administered to students from 2nd to 12th grade. This test is often given along with an achievement test such as the TerraNova, allowing teachers to compare student achievement with that of other students of the same age, grade and ability - and determine whether a student is achieving up to their full potential.

December 07, 2016 / Michelle Evans. The TerraNova InView Test is a cognitive abilities aptitude test that measures skills and abilities that are important for academic success. It is sometimes used as an entrance exam for gifted programs throughout the United States. For example all second graders (and new students) in Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS), Montgomery County, Maryland are tested with Inview for gifted programs.
