Islamic Modernism is a movement that has been described as "the first Muslim ideological response to the Western cultural challenge"[Note 1] attempting to reconcile the Islamic faith with modern values such as democracy, civil rights, rationality, equality, and progress. It featured a "critical reexamination of the classical conceptions and methods of jurisprudence" and a new approach to Islamic theology and Quranic exegesis. It was the first of several Islamic movements - including ...

ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM AND MODERNISM IN PAKISTAN INTRODUCTION Islamic modernism demands to review the attributes of Islam, rethink them in such a way as to match closely with both, the Islamic fundamental laws and the current needs of society. This approach is seen as a threat to the values and foundations of Islam by most Muslim scholars. As it is true that Islam is highly suited to changing ...

'Fundamentalism and nationalism I' looks at the tortuous relationship between fundamentalism and nationalism and considers the close connection between religious revival and nationalism. In Arab countries, the Islamic movements are ideological competitors of Arab nationalists. It would be incorrect, though, to see nationalism as being uniformly anti-religious and secular. Islamic religious leaders were at the forefront of the nationalist or patriotic movements that resisted European ...
