I will worship, with all of my heart. I will praise you, with all of my strength. I will seek you, all of my days. I will follow, all of your ways. I will give you, all my worship. I will give you, all my praise. You alone, I long to worship. You alone, are worthy of my praise. You are worthy of my praise.

What an incredible thought! God has been inviting, transforming, and sending people just like you since the beginning of time. Discover what He could do if you fully invested in 30 meetings with Him. Get ready for the journey of a lifetime! For nearly 40 years I have watched Ray Jones lead people into the presence of God through worship. This is not simply a book on worship but it is an expression for those many years of living a life of true worship. Taking this journey will help any believer become a more passionate worshipper. Jack Price - Founder Prism Music 'Will You Worship?' is a call back to the basics we overlook all too often - an authentic, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We often wonder why our influence for Christ has been so marginalized in our world. The answer is to offer ourselves more fully to God as worshipers. Ed Stetzer - President and Author of Transformational ChurchLifeway Research Ray Jones has given us a much-needed tool to help us learn how to seek God. 'Will You Worship?' is a valuable resource for everyone - from new believers to life-seasoned saints. Dennis Jernigan - Worship Leader and Author of The Chronicles of Bren: Capture Shepherd's Heart Music Ray Jones has led worship in churches, cities and neighborhoods worldwide for over 40 years. He is currently Worship Ministry Pastor at Community Bible Church in San Antonio, Texas which in one of the fastest growing congregations in the nation. Dino Senesi has led congregations and leaders in various roles for 30 years. He is a writer, leadership coach, and consultant who is currently the Journey Groups Pastor at North Rock Hill Church, Rock Hill, S.C.

What does it mean to praise God? In the ancient world, something extraordinary happened when God's people gathered to worship Him. It was more than just singing; it was a declaration, a proclamation, a time to fully embody praise to God for who He is and what he has done. In fact, in the Psalms, seven Hebrew words are translated into the English word praise, each of which represents a different aspect of what it means to truly praise God. In Holy Roar, Chris Tomlin and Darren Whitehead share a fresh perspective from the worship practices of the ancient world. Grow in your understanding of praise as Darren offers unique insights. Be inspired as Chris shares how those insights take shape in the stories behind some of your favorite worship songs, including "How Great Is Our God," "We Fall Down," and "Good Good Father." Whether for your own personal use or for use in your church small group, Holy Roar provides insight and encouragement to deepen your practice of praise. Become a part of the Holy Roar.

Something is missing from our worship today. We are a people with faith but without fruit. We worship with our minds but not with our lives. We sing with our lips but not with our hearts. We've traded knowing God for inconsequently knowing about God. You Are What You Worship is not about worshiping with a song; it's about worshiping with your whole life. It's about beholding the Creator and becoming the creature you were made to be. This is a call for all who wish to follow Jesus and live out their true purpose. It's a call to worship both in spirit and in truth, to value what God values, and to worship as God desires to be worshiped.

"Church musicians should NOT get paid!" "Church musicians should BE paid!" What does the Bible say about this "controversial" subject? Where do you stand?

Renowned Songwriter and Author Helps Readers See Worship as a Way of Life It can be easy to have a heart filled with worship on a Sunday morning as the church band is playing your favorite song. But then comes Monday morning's commute or Tuesday afternoon's pile of laundry. So what does worship look like in real life--at work, in your family, or with your friends? Darlene Zschech has spent her life thinking and teaching about worship. With wisdom and contagious joy, she shares her thoughts on what worship truly is and how it should invade every facet of your being. Let yourself be transformed by the purpose and freedom that come from living a life of worship.

It was the intention of the King of all creation since the very beginning; for His creatures to worship Him forever. But Satan — the deceiver, the rebellious angel — wanted to be worshiped instead, when adoration is due only to the Almighty God. "All this I will give you," Lucifer said to Jesus, "if you will bow down and worship me." Thus, the greatest controversy of all times about worship continues globally and individually to this day. "Through Worship Only" is a message from heaven. A dual purpose inspired and motivated me to write this book. First, the Lord appeared to me in a dream about worship, which I would like to share with all of you. Second, to emphasize the importance of true worship.

What They're Wired For Athlete or musician, quiet or “the life of the party”—every student you encounter is unique. No two are the same, but all have something in common: each is wired for worship. Not just any worship, but for that of their Creator! Designed for high school and collegiate settings, the Wired Leader's Guide assists leaders in challenging students to know God's purpose for their lives and guide them in fulfilling it. Mirroring the student version of Wired, the Leader's Guide contains additional teaching resources and ideas for group interaction, as well as the same thirty-day worship journey to explore the depth of God's character as a path to know Him more intimately.
