Full-ride scholarships can come from either a college or a third-party institution, and they can be merit or need-based.

While need-based scholarships are awarded based on both a student's qualifications and demonstrated financial need, merit-based scholarships are awarded strictly based on a student's qualifications and achievements, irrespective of financial need.

Alternative Scholarship Search Methods
Search Scholarships by Grade Level. Most college scholarships target incoming freshmen and undergraduates, so the sooner you start searching for awards and applying for them, the better. If you are a high school student, adding scholarship applications to your list of things to do alongside college applications and standardized tests is extremely important.
